WHEE AND CHAPTANG Departure of Freight Trains. Arrival of Freight Trains

Arrival of the Passenger Trains.

NASHVILLE, April 22d, 1861. Editors Union and American:

of interest to your readers, please publish. Many of our most prominent citizens have enter tained the idea that troffing was "played out" in this charge. The boxes containing the arms have never vicinity, and were extremely mortified thereby, but been opened, and were made at Harper's Ferry in I believe all (and this is a bold assertion) were satis | 1815. fied to-day of the contrary. The owners of fine roadsters need no longer despair, for without doubt, a ready market, notwithstanding old Aur's "coercion measures," will be readily found in this vicinity for all really good buggy horses. But to the race. The day was extremely warm and a very high wind prevailed, which caused the "knowing ones" to bet on "slow time," but as the sequel proves, they were rade-ther o-u-e-t in their calculation.

The first race was for $100 aside, mile heats, 3 best in 5 to harness between Bapt. HANNER's ch. m. Hatie Grant and Capt, Jas. M. Hinron's b. g. Jeff Hydes After being duly admired by the crowd, (which was mighty small) in attendance, they started very evonly for the 1st Heat. Well together to the quarter pole, and each doing some very pretty work to the half mile, which they reached in 1.29. The horse then took the lead and threw the dust in Hattie's f.ce, notwithstanding her exertions, 'till he reached the stand, thereby winning the heat in 2:53). 2n Hear.-Both in better order than at first neither presenting any appearance of fatigue. The mare was at the lead at the half mile, passing it in 1:271 without a break, and came home a winner in 2531 after a most beautiful brush down the stretch. The driving of both Mr. FUTCHER (the "Hiram of the West) and Capt. Hinton was much admired in this heat. After cooling off they started for the THE HEAT.—This heat the mare most decidedly showed her superiority, leading to the quarter under a hard pull, some eight or ten lengths, the horse breaking badly. The half mile was reached in 1-25, and the heat won without a break, by Hattie in 2:53. FOURTH HEAT.—The backers of the horse began to look blue, the ex-Sheriff rather trembling about military company to co-operate with the Tennessee the knees, and the crowd wondering how it was soldiery in defence of the South. The cause which possible for such time, in the face of such a wind, to now calls to arms the sons of the South is just, globe made. This heat was but a repetition of the rious and patriotic, and none more fully appreformer, the mare leading to the half mile i 1:26, ciate the incentive; none are more willing to bare and coming home an easy winner in 2:55. The their bosoms to the dangers and privations of war following is the summary:

Time 2.53% 2.53% 2.53 2.55 The fair-famed Louis Napoleon was then brought der the charge of Mr. FUTCHER, to win his gallant owner, Col. F. N. McNairt, a $100 note which the Colonel needed for the comfort of the gallant hearts who are about following him to the wars. The race was against time—the horse to beat 2:45. This he easily accomplished, winning W. H. F. easily in 2:39.

It was mentioned in our telegraphic dispatches a few days since that a lot of bacon shipped at Cincinnati for Charleston on the steamer Glenwood for this city, had been seized immediately upon the bost leaving Cincinnati, and the report was subscquently contradicted by telegraph. The Glenwood arrived here yesterday, and from one of her passengers we heard the following facts in regard to the matter: After the Glenwood left Cincinnati, a telegraph dispatch was sent to the authorities of Aurora and Madison, in Indiana, to intercept the boat and have her cargo examined to see whether there was anything "contraband of war"-that is armor or ammunition-and if so, to secure the same. At both points named committees of citizens were designated, who made the requisite examination, unheading casks of bacon, opening bales of thay and other suspicious looking packages, but no arms or ammunition having been found, the boat was permitted to proceed on its way.

REPORTED RESIGNATION OF GEN. SCOTT.-Much anxiety has been manifested to know whether the reported resignation of Gen. Scott was true, but no authoritative announcement of the fact has transpired, neither has the rumor been contradicted. A | aid in making them. rumor was current in the city yesterday, said to have been brought here by a passenger on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, that Gen. Scorr had resigned, but that the Administration refused to receive the resignation and would not let him leave the city. We presume the Administration would not accept his resignation, since he knows too much about their plans for subjugating the South. A gentleman of this city was in Richmond on Saturday and he says it was believ .1 there that Gen. Scorr
